
6
r 8
9
9
12
13
14
15
16

18
18
18
25

28
28
28
s 32
tems 34
ans and Recommendations 35

41
41
41
45

ty of Madison, that the Comprehensive noticed and considered, and that the reby directed to endorse on such plan hereon.

20 08.

Mayor, City of Madison

ST:

'S CERTIFICATE

qualified and acting City Finance Offiy certify that the certificates of ap-correct including the signatures ared the copy of the foregoing and inal as contained in the minutes of the ng of said Board held on the 21st day going is a true and correct copy of said ed, modified, or amended, on this

ive Plan is the result of the efforts of a public plants of Madison, community stakeholders, public and
, and professional individuals. As participants in the
and dedication to the future of Madison is reflected values Madison's past but also looks to the future de a unique quality of life that our residents and ations. Even though their names are not individu-nt and appreciation are extended to all citizens, ions who have participated in the Comprehensive and who provided input and attended public meet-
.

City Commission

nmissioner Dan Bohl
Mayor Gene Hexom
missioner Jerry Johnson
ssioner Karen Lembcke
ssioner Mechelle Nordberg

nning Commission

John Anderson
Kelli Brown
Todd Copeland
Sid Gulbranson
Cindy Iversen

y document for the physical, social, and economic
ty. As such, the plan influences policy decisions in a t not limited to the following:

Plan will be one of the primary tools used by City
mmissions, and other policy bodies to make decisions community facilities, priorities for public investment
, business development, and how to meet transporta-

ontinuous process and the development of the Plan
ess. Formulation of this text, figures and tables is not e of the Plan is what is important. Further, a Compre-measures used to implement the plan.

ons to all community needs, and the Comprehensive and changing activity that is periodically updated